

NOTICE OF NEXT MEETING

Thursday, November 13, 2008

7:00 - 8:00 PM

Kate Ericsson
Reading Therapist

Kate has a M.T. (Masters in Teaching) and M. Ed in Reading from UVA. She is a former classroom teacher (secondary English) and taught for 6 years in the state of Washington. She currently works part-time in the County schools doing PALS remediation. She will discuss helpful methods to teach our children with Down syndrome how to read.

Sponsored by

The Down Syndrome Association of Roanoke

Meeting Location

Roanoke County Headquarters Library

3131 Electric Road, SW

(on Route 419 across from the Post Office)

Meeting will be in the conference room just off the Children's Room.

For more information call

The Down Syndrome Association of Roanoke (772-6460),
Kendra Griffin (540-342-2994) or e-mail info@dsar.org

Refreshments will be served.

Come and enjoy each other's company.

This presentation is free and no reservation is needed.