

Calendar

Please join us! All events are open to the public. We always welcome family, friends, and professionals.

Thursday, February 7, 2008, 6:30 to 8:30 PM

Special presentation: How To Talk So Schools Will Listen And Listen So Schools Will Talk

Location: Roanoke County Headquarters Library, 3131 Electric Road, Roanoke

Presented by: Guest speaker from the Parent Educational Advocacy Training Center (PEATC) from Northern Virginia (snow date: Thursday, April 3, same date and location)

Saturday, February 16, 2008, 1-3 PM

Winter Bowling Party

Location: Lee-Hi Lanes, 1830 Apperson Drive, Salem

Bowling shoes and two games provided free.

Saturday, March 8, 2008, 8:30 AM to 4:30 PM

3rd Keys to the Future Conference

Location: The Hotel Roanoke and Conference Center, 110 Shenandoah Avenue, Roanoke

Join us to learn from the expertise of nine different speakers brought in from across the country for our conference. There will be information that will be presented on education, health, play skills, coping, transition, and job skills. A registration fee of $25 is required for this conference, but the fee will be waived for parents who have children with Down syndrome who reside in Southwest Virginia and the fee is a hardship. To register, send in the form on the last page of this newsletter or download it from our website at www.dsar.org. Call the DSAR with any questions at (540) 772-6460 or by e-mail to info@dsar.org.

Friday, May 9, 2008, 1st Tournament at 8 AM, 2nd Tournament at 1:30 PM

Mac & Bob's 16th Annual Golf Tournament Supporting the Down Syndrome Association of Roanoke

Get your team together for our annual fundraiser, put together your raffle prizes or call to see how you can get involved.

Thursday, June 5, 2008, 7 – 8 PM

Art Activity for All Children (siblings and friends welcome) hosted by Abbie Edens, Art Museum of Western Virginia

Location: Roanoke County Headquarters Library, 3131 Electric Road, SW, Roanoke

Sunday, August 10, 2008

DSAR hosts Push America Cycling Team on their stop in Roanoke. Time and location to be announced closer to the date.

Ongoing

Next Chapter Book Club

Open to all adults and teens who have disabilities

We currently have a waiting list but will start another one once we have six people signed up. We also need another facilitator. Please call the DSAR or send an e-mail to sign up or volunteer.